Thank you!

I want to thank all the people who sent us donations. Your help is very much appreciated! I also want to thank you all for your continued support by commenting, liking, sharing, and boosting the articles, following us on social media, and last but not least for sending tips and suggestions.

This week has been really slow on news and releases. However, we got some important software updates for VirtualBox, which now supports the upcoming Linux 6.6 kernel, Geany IDE with a major release in two years, and qBittorrent with a major update in a year.

On top of that, KDE fans got a new KDE Frameworks release with some small fixes and music producers have an improved Ardour release to try on their computers. Below, you can read this week's hottest news and access all the distro and package downloads in 9to5Linux's Linux weekly roundup for October 22nd, 2023.
